It is essential in these days to have a positive and encouraging radio station promoting family values with God as our source. KLOVE offers a choice, a station the family can listen to without embarrasing comments from disc jockeys and commercial free. Without it we would have no choice but to turn off our radio or listen to channels that have no substance. Thanks for allowing me to make a choice in what goes into my soul. to secular stations